PINN HALL THIRD FLOOR LABORATORY RENOVATION RFP # 16-112

The University seeks to retain a Construction Manager to join our team during the design phase to provide constructability review, scheduling and optimal phasing scenarios, cost estimating, and early bid package assistance, to provide full construction services for the University in accordance with the provisions of the University of Virginia Higher Education Capital Outlay Manual. The University has determined that competitive sealed bidding is not practicable or fiscally advantageous, therefore, the contract will be awarded as a Competitive Negotiation utilizing the Construction Management at Risk with Design Phase Services project delivery method. The project consists of renovating the entire third floor of Pinn Hall (formerly Jordan Hall) as a state of the art open laboratory for the Department of Cell Biology.

Project Overview:

The Pinn Hall laboratory renovations will establish the template for building-wide full floor renovations beginning with the third floor.

The scope of renovation will include complete removal of existing finishes and utilities back to shell condition on the third floor while sensitive research is being conducted on other floors. New construction will include open labs, support and equipment rooms, offices, collaboration areas, relocated toilet rooms, new lighting and electrical distribution, and MEP systems. Construction may also include exterior envelope upgrades, daylighting improvements with new and replacement fenestration while implementing architectural standards.

The firm will be responsible for providing CM services as required for Design Phase, Procurement Phase, and Construction Phase Services for the Pinn Hall third floor laboratory renovation project.

The anticipated schedule of the Construction Start will be June 2017.
