Apprenticeship

School Visits!

It’s school visit season and we are delighted to have current apprentices supporting local job fairs and career days to promote skilled trades as a career choice following high school.

Special thanks to Armiss Ferguson and Ryan McCarthy (pictured below, left) for visiting Charlottesville High School’s Career Fair on October 12.

OCCUPATIONAL TRAINING

Do You Have a New Employee Starting? Take Step 1!

Have you made a job offer to a potential new employee? Email FM-Training@virginia.edu as soon as you learn of their acceptance and the [Occupational Training team](mailto:Occupational Training team) will get their onboarding process started.

Managers & Supervisors: Are You Setting Your New Employees Up for Success?

What are the benefits of successfully onboarding new employees? Why should managers care? Managers & supervisors are a link between the employees and the organization, ensuring that employees contribute to organizational goals and values.

An employee whose new job orientation goes well will:

→ Perform better
→ Feel more engaged with their job duties
→ Have increased productivity
→ Experience better job satisfaction, which leads to better employee retention.

As leadership, managers and supervisors should:

→ Make new hires feel welcome.
→ Facilitate knowledge transfer.
→ Develop a good working relationship.
→ Select and assign a buddy or mentor to show them the ropes.

OCCUPATIONAL TRAINING

Leadership Connection: Thermometers and Thermostats

As the weather is cooling from summer to fall, I am becoming increasingly aware of the temperature in the mornings. The temperature has always been a useful reference point for me to describe a team’s culture and engagement, and how well we are getting along? In my mind, cooler team temperatures mean a lack of trust and low interpersonal engagement, while hot temperatures usually mean hot tempers, outbursts, and frustration. The warm, happy temperature is an engaged workforce, with people getting along and working together. Author Jason Barger recently shared a similar lesson in terms of temperature and leadership using the example of “thermometers and thermostats”.

Ok, so what’s the difference?

As Jason explains, thermometers read the temperature in the room, thermostats regulate the temperature. From a leadership perspective, it’s important to read the temperature of your team, but if you only watch the temperature, you may see temperature go up and down frequently, ultimately resulting in an exhausted team managing to work in a volatile environment. Like a thermostat, it is also important to regulate the temperature of your team. Set the example and the temperature of your team culture by defining and modeling it. Share your expectations of what you want the working culture to be. As a leader, you can cool things off if the temperature gets too hot, and you are also able to breathe life back into the room if it gets too cold. As an added benefit, you are also able to create additional thermostats on your team by identifying and empowering influential team members. What’s the temperature in your neck of the woods? Stay warm, my friends.

Training Highlight: Backflow Prevention, October 2022

UVA FM Occupational Training is happy to offer the 40-hour and 16-hour vocational credit course needed to apply for the “Backflow Preventer Device Tester Tradesman” designation.

Dates: October 17-21, 7:30-4:00
Cost: $750/40-hour and $500/16-hour
Email fm-training@virginia.edu for additional information.

Don’t Forget Your Education Benefits!

To increase career-building opportunities and encourage professional growth, UVA offers an Education Benefit to employees who’ve been in a benefits-eligible position for at least one year. This benefit includes two components: Tuition and Professional Development.

Tuition, which is a maximum of $5,250/year, can be used for a degree seeking program. Not seeking a degree? We’ve got you covered! Of that $5,250 benefit, $2,000/year may be used for ‘professional development,’ which includes classes, certification training and conferences.

An employee who wishes to take advantage of the Education Benefit must submit the request through Employee Self-Service in Workday. Don’t delay, as this benefit is based on the calendar year and December is right around the corner!

BEE AWARE: STRESS AT WORK PART II – ORGANIZATIONAL SUPPORT

As previously discussed, there are two aspects that contribute to job stress: the individual worker and the organization itself. For the worker, factors that can affect job stress are personality, coping skills, and attitude. On the organizational side, contributions to a stressful work environment on the worker are unrealistic deadlines and workloads, lack of control over the working environment, lack of supervisory support, and poorly defined work roles. Therefore, the responsibility of alleviating job stress falls both on the worker and the organization.

Ways in which the organization can support a healthy work environment are:

→ Organizational Impacts: provide surveys or other methods for feedback from workers.
→ Define roles and responsibilities.
→ Allow workers to fully utilize their skills.
→ Establish work schedules that are compatible with demands outside of work.
→ Involve workers in decision making.
→ Reduce uncertainty about future job prospects.

DID YOU KNOW? OCTOBER IS THE CDC’S NATIONAL PROTECT YOUR HEARING MONTH!

Everyday sounds typically do not damage your hearing. However, many people participate in activities that produce harmful sound levels, such as attending loud sporting events and music concerts, and using power tools. Loud sound (noise) can damage sensitive parts of the ear, causing hearing loss, ringing or buzzing in the ear (tinnitus), and increased sensitivity to sound (hyperacusis). Repeated exposure to loud noise over the years affects how well you hear later in life and how quickly you develop hearing problems, even after exposure has stopped.

Tips for protecting your hearing:

→ When at home, turn down the volume of the TV, radio, or music.
→ If listening to loud music, take listening breaks.
→ Use quieter products (power tools, toys, recreational vehicles) whenever they are available.
→ Reduce equipment noise by replacing worn, loose, or unbalanced machine parts. Keep equipment well lubricated and maintained.
→ Use hearing protection devices (such as earplugs and earmuffs) when you cannot avoid loud sounds.

Are you experiencing loud noise at work? Email FM-OHS@virginia.edu to request sampling!
OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY
SEASONAL FLEET SAFETY REMINDERS

Keep Your Work Vehicle in Top Shape to Remain Safe

Use your Headlights & Strobes

→ Daylight hours are getting shorter and staying visible is important.
→ Strobe lights should always be on while driving Kubotas and other motorized utility vehicles (MUVs).

Take Inventory—Do you have:

→ A First Aid Kit? Is it up to date? Contact the FM Materials Warehouse to refill/refresh.
→ A Fire Extinguisher? Does it have a recent inspection? Contact the Fire & Life Safety team to update the inspection.
→ An Ice Scraper? Drop by the FM Fleet office to pick one up.
→ Functional windshield wipers? Drop by the Fleet office to have them replaced, if needed.
→ Low Tire Pressure light on? Contact your supervisor and bring the vehicle to the fleet office to have your tire pressure checked. Tire pressure can decrease about 1 PSI (pounds per square inch) for every 10° the temperature drops.
→ Slow Crank on startup? Contact your supervisor and the fleet office to have the battery checked.

Idling/Warm Up Reminders: Virginia prohibits public service and commercial vehicles from idling for more than 3 minutes while parked in commercial or residential urban areas. Exceptions include when the vehicle's propulsion engine is providing auxiliary power for purposes other than heating and air conditioning. Additionally, VA puts a 10-minute cap on idling for diesel-powered vehicles that revert to idling to reduce issues with restarting. For further details, refer to Virginia Administrative Code (Title 9, Agency 5, Chapter 40, Section 5670 C). Kubotas require a warm-up procedure different than that of other vehicles — Kubota UTV Warm Up Recommendations:

- Above 32°F, a warm-up time of up to 5 minutes may be required.
- Between 14° and 32°F, a warm-up time of up to 10 minutes may be required.
- Below 14°F, a warm-up period of up to 15 minutes may be required.

Reporting Updates

Facilities Management employees working within UVA Health facilities (required to comply with UVA Health’s policy OCH-002) must report their positive COVID-19 test results to Employee Health at 434-924-2013 or employeehealth@virginia.edu. This requirement no longer applies to employees working strictly within UVA Academic facilities.

Updated COVID-19 Boosters are now available that offer stronger protections against severe illness and death from Omicron sub-variants. Make your appointment: https://vaccinate.virginia.gov/

Monkeypox Update

→ As of 10/13/2022, there have been 510 cases of monkeypox in Virginia, 22 hospitalizations, & 0 deaths.

→ Anyone can potentially get and spread monkeypox, but the risk to the general public is considered low at this time. Prevention tips: https://www.vdh.virginia.gov/monkeypox/prevention/

→ Vaccines are available for those exposed or at risk. Fill out the statewide interest form from the Virginia Department of Health: https://at.virginia.edu/JqOnG0
